

I am really grateful that you have always been concerned about God using my campus work at Penn State University (Abington) through China Outreach Ministries (COM). Thank God for the great grace that he has bestowed on us in Jesus Christ, that we can be saved and called to partake the great mission of evangelism. God definitely can accomplish his redemption plan without anyone, but he condescendingly chooses to give us, humble vessels the privilege to partake in his ministry. Therefore, on the great mission of evangelism, each of Christians is on the battlefield for the kingdom of God, fighting against Satan. Although God has called us to fight in different positions, we are all responsible to faithfully respond to our calling from heaven. Today, God calls me as a warrior on the front line. I believe that he will certainly supply all that soldiers need, just as he faithfully and abundantly supplied the priests and Levitical tribes in the Old Testament, as well as the apostles in the New Testament. I cannot stop giving thanks to God for having your partnership and support from the very beginning! I pray that God would lead us together to continue obeying our Lord, Jesus Christ, and to fight side by side in the battlefield of saving the lost souls of Penn State Chinese students back to God!

As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

1 Timothy 6:17-19

And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency[e] in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work.
